

Data and Privacy File Guides

Apple Media Services:
Account External Verification History

September 2024

File name Account External Verification History.csv

File description This file contains a history of verification requests to a third-party verification service.

Why Apple keeps this information Apple retains this information in order to verify if the user's type of account qualifies for promotions or discounts and to determine when the user's account requires reverification.

Field Name	Details
Apple ID Number	Apple account identification number
Country	Country associated with the user's account
Created Date	Date and time the student verification session was created
Device ID	Identifier of the user's device
External Service Provider ID	Identifier of the 3rd party service verification provider
Last Updated Date	Date when the student verification session was last updated
Operation Type	Type of operation (e.g., U for insert/update, D for delete)
School Country	Country of the school the user attends
Service Type	A type of subscription service (e.g., arcade, music, tv)
User Type	The type of user to be verified, (e.g., student, youth, employee, teacher)
Verification ID	Identifier of the service verification
Verification Method	The method used to verify account status (e.g., instant, SSO, Email, DocReview)
Verification Result	Whether the user's account has been verified and if the account is expiring within the next month
Verification Status	Status of the verification (e.g., email, email pending, doc upload, doc upload pending)